BantuYou

Bantu Semua, BantuYou

BantuYou is a legal aid platform run by assiduous lawyers to help marginalised communities encompassing the vulnerable and unfortunate. We run instrumental programs like the legal aid centre, provide free legal assistance to help low-income families apply for probate or letter of administration, help women and children of domestic abuse, etc.

Our commitment and attention to detail are held at the highest level whilst maintaining professionalism and accessibility to all members of society.

An NGO for legal services, if you will.

Our Mission

"In law, nothing is certain but the expense." The same can be said for life, as everything comes with a price. Not everyone has access to quality legal advice, but everyone deserves a voice. Those impoverished in the "Vulnerable Community" should have equal opportunity to improve and enrich their lives. We aim to educate and share legal knowledge with the downtrodden, ensuring they have the legal assistance needed. In the grand scheme of things, we hope to establish a harmonious and caring civilisation together.
